

Rev. Gilliland New Nazarene Church Pastor

Rev. Ponder W. Gilliland, former general secretary of the international young people's society in the Church of the Nazarene, has accepted the call to pastor the Torrance Church of the Nazarene, 1501 West Carson St.

Rev. Gilliland will be delivering his first message to the Torrance congregation on Sunday morning Nov. 20th at 10:45. The public is invited to attend. Other services include Sunday School at 9:30 a.m., youth services at 6 p.m., and evangelistic service at 7 p.m.

Prior to serving the Church of the Nazarene as general secretary, Rev. Gilliland served as general president of the society for four years. He has served as district superintendent of the San Antonio, Tex., district for three years, and pastored churches in Bakersfield, and Calgary, Alberta, Canada. Rev. Gilliland is a graduate of Pasadena College.

As former director of the Nazarene Servicemen's commission, he conducted a retreat for Nazarene servicemen overseas in 1958 and 1959. His church work has taken him to three continents. In 1958, he visited 11 European countries, Egypt, Lebanon, Syria, The Hashemite Jordan, and Israel.

Rev. Gilliland with his wife and four children are moving to Torrance this week.

Noted Organist In Recital at Baptist Church

Fredrick M. Barnes, who was featured organ soloist at the 1956 Bach Festival in Los Angeles and is former organist for the First Congregational Church of Los Angeles, will be guest organist for a recital to be given at the First Baptist Church of Torrance at 2118 W. Carson St. at 6:30 p. m. today.

The recital is open to the public and will be heard in the church sanctuary where a new organ was recently installed.

The organist has appeared in solos and in accompaniment to choirs with the Los Angeles Philharmonic, Pasadena Civic Orchestra, and has written many compositions for the organ.

South High Queen Race Down to 15

The top 15 girls competing for the title of Homecoming Queen at South High School include Sandy French, Joy Bebbins, Nancy Anthony, Sharon McCombs, Pan Lytle, Shirley Nacota, Linda Memoli (foreign exchange student from Uruguay), Kathy Miller, Judi Benson, Marie Acosta, Sandi Wald, Kathie Copple, Marilyn Flynn, Sharon Breniman.

The candidates receiving the most votes from the student body out of all the girls attending South, were announced Friday at an Aud Call at which The Eligibles, popular singing group, provided the entertainment.

The Queen will be announced at South's game with Inglewood, along with her court of four princesses. She will then reign over South's first Homecoming game and dance, Nov. 18.
